

ROBERT-IAN GREENE

Robert Greene focuses his practice on commercial leasing and transactional work. Rob represents both landlord and tenant parties across all aspects of commercial real estate lease transactions, with a particular focus in ongoing lease administration for various asset classes, including general office, retail, restaurant, warehouse, and life science property types.

Prior to joining Dain Torpy, Rob served as Associate General Counsel at the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance, where he provided essential guidance and legal insight into an assortment of Commonwealth real estate leasing, licensing, and land use development projects. Throughout his law school career, Rob served as Treasurer for the board of the Real Estate Law Society.
