Shari Purrington's practice focuses on real estate and finance matters, and the representation of institutional lenders and investors in various real estate and structured finance transactions. Prior to joining Dain, Torpy, Le Ray, Wiest & Garner, P.C. Ms. Purrington spent eight years at Dechert, LLP where she focused on representing institution lenders and underwriters in loan originations, structured finance transactions and sale lease-back financing. She has also successfully represented underwriters/initial lenders in $1.25 billion credit lease financing of more than 340 commercial properties nationwide.

Much of Ms. Purrington's work includes representing parties in large multi-state, multi-property financing transactions, as well as being experienced in credit tenant lease financing.

Shari's representation of owners and purchasers of real estate includes negotiating acquisitions, financings, and leases. Her experience representing a variety of lenders adds value for her borrower clients in financing transactions.
